1/2/76

Dear Corky,

Relet 29: You may be right. My recollection is I was going on FBI reports and they are not dependable. I have erred before in believing them.

I have no independent recollection of knowing his 1/22/63 whereabouts from any other source.

McDonald's book, regardless of what anyone thinks of him, is a gross and deliberate fraud. I'd like to know what and whose (extensive amounts of) money is behind it. It is not even a good fraud.

My activity seems to be at a plateau. It is and I think for a while will remain limited. This time of the year my wife works (tax consultant) so all that extra work falls on me.

Thanak, best regards, and have a good year.
